DHBW STUTTGART POLICY FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

- WELCOME DAYS
Students must attend the orientation week (1st week of September / 1st week of March)
- ATTENDANCE
Students must attend 80 % of the classes in order to receive the required ECTS and mandatory English courses if advised to. Otherwise the International Office is compelled to inform the coordinator at the home university and students may not be allowed to participate in the final exams.
- PUNCTUALITY
Students must be on time for the classes and other appointments with staff members.
- BEHAVIOUR
Students must behave in a proper manner during their stay at DHBW Stuttgart (during lectures and in their free time, in the dorms, especially). Students have to be aware that they represent not only themselves, but also their families, their university and their home country, as well as DHBW Stuttgart.
- WORKING DAYS
Working days in Germany are from Monday to Friday.
- RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES
DHBW Stuttgart is happy to welcome students to the university from various religious backgrounds. We understand that students may need to attend religious ceremonies during class time and we are willing to excuse absences under these circumstances. The lecturer should be informed in case of absence.
- PRIVATE ACTIVITIES
When students come to Germany to study, any private activity or work they undertake must not interfere with their studies. Course work and university attendance can be affected as a result of travelling or working too much.
